

Heather Alexander, Tomorrow I Leave For Battle

Love me one more time,
Make this night last forever,
For on the morrow, I leave for battle--

I may survive,
And I shall return to you,
But come the morrow, I leave for battle--

And if I die, just remember I love you,
And you'll always be mine,
Let us warm up this cold night together,
Come the morrow, I leave for battle--

Until tomorrow,
Let me love you forever,
For come the morrow, I leave for battle--
