

Heather Myles, When You Walked Out On Me

I cried a tear or two,
An' I've loved and lost a few.
An' I've had my share of blue,
But nothin' compared to you.

An' I've had my ups and downs.
Picked myself up off the ground.
But I can't forget the sound,
When you walked out on me.

Do you remember that November,
When everything was right.
That was a beginning of an ending.
Now I can't get you out of my mind.

Now I live on lonely street,
Surrounded by your memories,
And I cry myself to sleep,
Since you walked out on me.

Instrumental Break.

Do you remember that November,
When everything was right.
That was a beginning of an ending.
Now I can't get you out of my mind.

Now I've had my ups and downs.
Picked myself up off the ground.
But I can't forget the sound,
When you walked out on me.

When you walked out on me.

When you walked out on me.
