

Heather Nova, Home

Take me home
Send me on a ship
My life leaves me
Homesick

Home
I forget myself
Home
I can't let myself
Let myself go

Miss my baby bones
I know the way they felt
I've been aching
For mother's milk

Home
I forget myself
Home
I can't let myself
Let myself go

And I wanna be only bereft
And I wanna get smartest in my heart
Somebody to cut what I can't chew
Fill me up like it fills the room

Got my big girl
Body and shoes
Sometimes lately
Its hard to choose

Home
Can't let myself go
I forget myself
Home
Can't let myself go
I can't let myself go
Home
Can't let myself go
I forget myself
Home
Can't let myself go
I can't let myself
Let myself
Let myself
Let myself
Let myself go
