

Heather Nova, I'm No Angel

Are you ready for me to be stronger
I'm keeping my distance, my voice to a whisper
Are you ready for me to surrender
'Cause I find in my return
There's no need to hide these words

Maybe I'm no angel
But I feel like I could fly
And maybe there's no rainbow,
But my love for you still shines

And I want to, I want to be endless
I want to be helpless, I want to be true
Like a sunbeam, the shadow's behind me
Sliding out of view, let me bring it home to you

Maybe I'm no angel
But I feel like I could fly
And maybe there's no rainbow,
But my love for you still shines

'Cause here I am, here I am
I've been running long enough to know
Here I am, here I stand
All this run's got me longin' in my soul

Maybe I'm no angel
But I feel like I could fly
And maybe there's no rainbow,
But my love for you still shines
