

Heatmiser, Bottle Rocket

he's a sink full of numbers (?)
a watery life of a deep repent bothered, i'm on my own collar (?) and he even knows your name and on my way down

right out the door
amused by the past

i'm a hopeless ????? i'm gonna have him framed oh, anything to pin him down i need him, he won't take the blame

and on my way down
right out the door

i never swallowed that spike before
and he even knows your neam

right out the door
