

Heatmiser, Can't Be Touched

i'm in love with an icon. i didn't expect him to call i'm crushed and ground in some disaster i feel like a criminal turn out the light, don't crush me i get a bruise and i'm not even touching, touching are you sincere or are you dangling bair and if i bit will you judge me i don't know what's genuine i go back and forth with him does a screw make a bad lynch pin

i think about this is a grin with a ????? i thought i couldn't be touched until they tagged me out and i didn't even feel it at all the bigger the hands, so full of s the neighborhood is one crowded bed they're all so strange ???

so i go back and forth with him

oh i'm losing control who's in control
i'm losing control can't be touched

so i go back and forth with him
