

Heatmiser, The Fix Is In

you want every day to be like that magic first when she took shape in your eyes and you in hers you're going down to see her, it's a big mistake she got ice she don't want anyone to break don't call on me to make disguises fade away 'cause honestly I'm more inclined to let them stay on your faces and over mine

i know how to turn others inside out i can't stand by here waiting while they dumb me down i fit the perfect picture that you want for all the fix is in i'm going where i don't belong sweet nothing is a something in me

sweet nothing, pretty nothing when you go talking trash i'm surprised at what you say why you wanna keep these lies on parade nothing's gonna make me shy...away

i know how to turn others inside out i can't stand by here waiting while you dumb me down
the fix is in i'm going where i don't belong
