I'd been out walking
I don't do too much talking these days
These days I seem to think a lot about the things I forgot to do
And all the times I had the chance too

I quit my rambling
I don't do too much gambling these days
These days I seem to think a lot about the many changes that came my way
And I wonder if I'd ever see another highway

I had a lover

I don't think I'd risk another these days
These days and if I seem to be afraid to live the life I have made in song
It's just that I've been losing so long

I've quit my dreaming
I won't do too much scheming these days
These days I sit on cornerstones
And count the time in quarter tones to ten

Please don't confront me with my failures
I have not forgotten them
