

Heatmiser, Wake

I gave you what was mine
I gave you what was mine but there's nothing wrong with you just 'cos you're leaving all this behind it's alright if you do it to me
I'm a paralytic
I need a chalk outline to lie down in you know one wound just wants to turn into another it's alright if you do it to me
I gave you what was mine but we are not alike there's nothing wrong with you just 'cos you leave a few things behind
