

Heatmiser, Why Did I Decide To Stay?

kept my coat on while you put your empty arms around me kept my shirt on and wrestled my memory down when i put my arm around you i had to hold my mand in place i didn't move to keep you from feeling chased dropping off

you smile easy
what was i supposed to say?
hits the ground
and it dies easy
why did i decide to stay?

looks like i should forget you now underneath the covers i'm not naked maybe you were never next to me does all recorded history start tomorrow morning? did you forget or were your kisses my final warning?

a spent bullet brought me down add me to the list you stopped with blanks or how about a rundown of the top 100 where do i rank did i even make the list or did i make a big mistake?

you smile easy
