

Heavens Gate, Atomic

(Lyrics: Rettke)

(Music: Rettke, Paeth, Bilski)

Death an' terror is rulin' the land peace is so hard to find screams of pain bursting loud in the night
this madness is burning our mind

War is eating us down to the bone we're lying here dying alone
no point of view, a thorn in my eyes
World's face is turning to stone

(PRE-CHORUS:)

What is the sense of this dreadful game, can you say people who're paying the price are always the same

(CHORUS:)

Time will see, what you 've done to me
are you too blind to see
Atomic

Flesh is rotting all over the fields dread is spreading unbound
nobody cared what the wise man said:
this world's going down to the ground

(PRE-CHORUS)

(CHORUS:)

Time will see, what you've done to me
are you too blind to see?
Atomic
in my hand there is burning sand
is this the promised land?

No one's fooling me, I know the truth
no one's paying us for our youth - no!

(CHORUS)
