Heavens Gate, Back From The Dawn

[Music:Rettke/Paeth/Hunecke - Words: Rettke]

It's a long time ago when you had the feelin' to adore her Did you know, did you know that it's a lie? She was spreading into your life and tellin' she would love ya Did you know it's cuttin' like a knife?

[BRIDGE:]

Every single touch, every word of mouth now you know that she's been fakin' All the dirty lies turned you inside out Now it's up to you for breaking away

[CHORUS:]

Breaking the chain
Get away, she's back from the dawn
You're feeling the pain
Watch out! Now she's back from the dawn

In a world of shattered dreams You're trying to protect Did you know she utilized your care?

[BRIDGE / CHORUS]

Foolish behavior is piercing my brain Don't know the difference of pleasure and pain

There's no bed of roses Just a bed of nails No sense of security in a love that never fails
