

Heavens To Betsy, Decide

"&quot;Do you wanna get married baby?&quot;"
Is that that the way he said it?
Is that the way you asked him?
I know you have to live your life and I live mine
But when I think about it, it still makes me want to cry

"&quot;I will decide my life
I will decide this time
&quot;No man is gonna rule my life,&quot;" she said
&quot;I will decide my life&quot;"

Make a million promises that you won't keep
Holding on boygirl, I'm dying in my sleep
Wait for something different
Holding on to nothing else but him, him, him, him, him

"&quot;I will decide my life
I will decide this time
&quot;No man is gonna rule my life,&quot;" she said
&quot;I will decide this time&quot;"

Waiting on forever, waiting on tomorrow
Waiting on a fairy tale
You get rid of all those traps they have set around you
But can you get rid of that seed they planted in your head?

"&quot;I will decide my life
I will decide this time
&quot;No man is gonna rule my life,&quot;" she said
&quot;I will decide this time&quot;"

Is he a real prince charming? Is he really worth it?
All those things I saw you give up
I wait, I wait for a happy ending
But I could never say goodbye
