Heavy D, We Got Our Own Thang

Everybody, shake your body, we don't ill, we chill at party Keep a groove that's sensual, three-dimensional, unquestionable The lover is professional

Got a category, my own and I'm the president

With my particular style, particular, extracurricular, smoother and trickier

Throwing on lyrics like you throw up a flapjack You're a Chicen McNugget and I'm a Big Mac Brainstorm soloist, have a Coca-colaist, doing very well Because it took the right road to this Path, make the undertake, the recordbreaker Get up on the floor and do the Heavy D shake Started with a pow and I'm going to end with a bang

We've got our own thang

Picture the set, girlies wet with sweat In the corner people sitting down They've had as much as they could possibly get Here while I'm lamping Feeling like a champ and push up on a cutie Phone digits I'm stamping The place was packed though, stuffed like an Oreo Everybody broke for a Heavy D video Pumping in stereo, people said, " Here we go, " A cutie down in front said, " Heavy you're my hero" Understand this, before you make a comment Because there's always a meaning in a Heavy D statement In this life, I strive for improvement Be your own guide, follow your own movement Loving is a legend Me, I'm legendary at it Living on the mike makes me a rapping acrobat Don't try to swing, because you couldn't even hang We've got our own thang

We've got our own thang

Original, smooth criminal, dance a lot, dance a little, shuffle to the middle Don't clock anybody, let them all clock you
Don't be down with anybody, let them all be down with you
Stay self-managed, self-kept, self-taught
Be your own man, don't be borrowed, don't be bought
Started with a pow and I'm going to end it with a bang
We've got our own thang
