

Heavy Trevy, Michelle

She's standing all alone
She's waiting by the telephone
Those lonely nights
And still she cries some more...
Die you Fucking whore

When I woke up
You really needed some make up
I must been real fucked up
Just get away from me
And when I sat down and thought about what went down
I can't believe that I got down with that disgusting...

Now my friends are gonna laugh at me

She's standing all alone
She's waiting by the telephone
Those lonely nights
And still she cries some more...
Die you Fucking whore

I dont know what I've been told
That you like me
And now I hav to go
So why do you keep staring at me

So don't complain when you want a little more or talk shit behind my back you silly, stupid, whore Cause you think that you're hot and smart, but you 're not There's something wrong with your face!!!

My friends are gonna laugh at me

She's standing all alone
She's waiting by the telephone
Those lonely nights
And still she cries some more...

She's standing all alone
She's standing all alone
Those lonely nights
And still she cries some more

She's standing all alone(repeat til fade)
