

Hedley, Sugar Free

Tight-rope walking ain't that hard
After slamming back a few
Your laughing now but it ain't that funny
When they get through with you
I'm sittin' there wishing I were you
It hurts to much to cry
Feel before
So now why bother
It hurts to much I think I'll cry

If I never knew you
I'de never love
If I never loved you
Then I wouldn't cry
If I never knew you
I'de never love you
If loving meant living
I wouldn't die
Wouldn't die

Standing closer ain't that hard
With your hands upon your face
Look to far I'de look much harder
They lost all sense of trace

Sittin' there wishing I were you
But I'll never be the same
Never had such sense of wonder
Never knew they had a brain

If I never knew you
I'de never love you
If I never loved you
Then I wouldn't cry
If I never knew you
I'de never love you
If loving meant living
Then I wouldn't die

And I can't hear myself scream
And I can't hear myself dream
No,no
Nobody's falling
Nobody's falling
Nobody run just hit the floor
Nobody's falling
Nobody's falling
Nobody still I'de catch you

Would you catch me if I fall
If I never knew you
I'de never love you
If I never loved you
I'de never,I'de never
I'de never cry
No,no,no,no,no,no,no

Nobody's falling
Nobody's falling
Nobody run just hit the floor
Nobody's falling
Nobody's falling
Nobody Still
Nobody's Falling

Nobody's falling
Nobody Still I'll catch you
Nobody's falling
Nobody's falling
Nobody still I'de catch you