

Hefner, Good Fruit

If it doesn't mean a thing
Then don't say anything
But it means something
More than we can say

'Cause you kissed me so
Even though
Your head said no
So when will you phone?

Lost feelings of love come flooding back
Every time you cry
You give me little heart attacks
Love seems strongest when it's new
But there's something I can't prove
I can't prove that I love you

Oh, I need you here
So make your reasons clear
Is it me you fear?
I fear I'm losing you

Oh, it's time to choose
You know I can't stand losing
It's my mind you're bruising
As well as my heart

Lost feelings of love come flooding back
Every time you cry
You give me little heart attacks
Love seems strongest when it's new
But there's something I can't prove
I can't prove that I love you

You were just there
At the right place
You smoothed out the wrinkles
On my face

You've got to sort the good fruit
From the bad fruit
Darling! I'm not supposed to feel this
Not when you're leaving

Lost feelings of love come flooding back
Every time you cry
You give me little heart attacks
Love seems strongest when it's new
But there's something I can't prove
I can't prove that I love you

Oh you, you should stick around
To see me hit the ground
It's such a pretty sound

'Cause I'm not supposed to feel this
Not when you're leaving
