

Hefner, Hold Me Closer

I want a single bed
I want a simpler life
But I want you by my side
I'm so confused

I want you wishing something that might come true
Oh, I'm so confused
But I'm in love with you

Hold me closer tonight
Hold me closer tonight
Say you will
Hold me still
'Til the morning
'Til the morning

You said you'd walk me down
To the riverside
When I'm by your side
I'd walk a million miles

When we're old and gray
We won't talk this way
We are stupid and dumb
But we're only young

Hold me closer tonight
Hold me closer tonight
Say you will
Hold me still
'Til the morning
'Til the morning

I owe you my heart
Do you understand?
I owe you my eyes and my lips and my hands

Hold me closer tonight
Hold me closer tonight
Say you will
Hold me still
'Til the morning
'Til the morning...
