

Heideroosjes, Can't Find My Brains

Walk to the left, walk to the right
I'm searching for that happy light
Running forward, running back
Try to follow my followed track
I'm sure I've lost them around here
Was it this street or overthere?

(CHORUS)

I can't find my brains, but I don't care at all
I can't find my brains, but I don't care

Looking around that's what I do
Can't find those things since a week or two
I've called to Jesus and to 911
They told me: "You've lost them when you life begun"
If you have seen my brains hanging around
Please call, I want them to be found

Why am I looking for them anyway?
There are many guys just like me
Look at Koresh or Mr. Saddam Hoessein
Do those guys really have a brain?
The world is ruled by brainless fools
So I don't need a brain knowing all the rules
