

Heideroosjes, Cash Is King

Whatever I want, I'm gonna, gonna get it
Money and fame, I wanna wanna have it
I'll jump higher than you want me to
My ambition has no taboo

Whatever I want, I'm gonna, gonna grab it
Fair play, what play? I never, never said it
Integrity is just a weird word to me
Annoying like this song, you see?

Cash is king, green means bling bling
Cash is God, we trust in, a lot

All that you love, I wanna wanna have it
If you're in my way, for sure you will regret it
Forgiveness does not cross my mind
No need to be kind

I aim for gold, will not get stuck in the gutter
I don't share cause I'm no beggar's butler

Cash is king
Green means bling bling
Cash is God
We trust in
Sell your soul, tell me what's your price
Everyone's for sale
Sell your soul, tell me what's your price
Everyone's for sale, it's a small sacrifice

Greed is not a sin, it's a new way of life
Give me green, give me green
Give me green, give me more..

Cash is king
Cash is God
And we are the true believers
