

Heideroosjes, Sausages And Cheese

My grandpa hates you. He says: They are all pigs!
They have destroyed so many things, I can't stand them!

But that was 50 years ago, lots have changed since then
We must not forget it, but should go on too

I'm drinking a beer with you, you didn't do anything wrong
Together against neo-nazi's, that's what I thought

I'm an Kskopf, you are a wurstenfresser (*1)
You're grandfather stole my bike, but my new one is much better! (*2)

You've got the fat Kohl, we've got the deaf Kok (*3)
They both want to save, and I don't care

You've got shitty Germans, you've got shitty Dutchmen

(* this song is about Dutchmen that don't like Germans. That has a lot of reasons. The main reason

(*German text)

(*1 Kskopf = Cheese-head (Dutchmen eat a lot of cheese) wurstenfresser = Sausageseater (German)

(*2 The Nazi's stole a damn lot of bikes in the WWII, and we're still waiting to get em back!)
