

Heideroosjes, Winter Wonderland

One day there came four boys, walking hand in hand
The boys were just walking not knowing where to go
It was already Christmas and there was a lot of snow
And they were singing a song...

(CHORUS)

In a winter, winter, winter wonderland
We are making noise, we are making noise
In a winter, winter, winter wonderland We are making noise

Loud, proud and ugly they sang a noisy song
The lyrics were obscene but the meaning wasn't wrong
The winter wonderland wasn't quiet anymore
Because four little boys were screaming bloody gore...

The storm took not long but the chaos was complete
The little boys walk further and the animals could breath
But that peaceful winter wonderland covered with snow
Did never see the boys again, because they knew where to go

No deep thoughts behind this song. Just a story about how four boys destroy a peaceful winterland within one hour
