Heimdall, Canticle Of Heimdall

Hear the epic tales of a time now far past When man kneeled to the power of the sword Hear the deeds of the mighty knights They Believed in the sacred fire of glory and pride

(pre-chorus) I sing the saga of the bravest and proudest god Of Asgardr's court Blood, ice, earth and moonlight blessed his soul He was called by the king of kings To be the Defender of the sky

(chorus) I invoke your spirit, O Lord of light - I call you May i sing the story of the Bright God - I call you eternal Lord May i sing the deeds of - HEIMDALL With solemn words I invoke your spirit, O lord of poetry - Messenger of ancient tales

Hear the story of the theft of the necklace The duel on the dark island, the anger of evil Thus came the age of destruction and death When the darkness of war engulfed all the land and the sky

(repeat pre-chorus and chorus)
