

Helen Rask, Get On

You never know what you see,
You never know how I feel
You catch a ride in another life baby.
You never know what to do,
You never know I love, it's true,
You bought with think
You take the hit, you worry.
Get on, get on with your life
You know why is telepathy.
Get on, get on with your life
You know it's easy
Get on, get on with your life
I keep it through the night
Get on, get on with your life....
I never could tell you lies,
You never could tell me why.
You catch a ride in another life baby.
You're serching for the only way,
You're serching for a plains the same
I have to go, I have to know the story.
Get on, get on with your life. . . etc.
What take another way, another day, it's easy.
It's all you, it's all you have to know.
Get on, get on with your life
You know why is telepathy.
Get on, get on with your life
You know it's easy
Get on, get on with your life
You know why is telepathy.
Get on, get on with your life
You know it's easy
Get on, get on with your life
I keep it through the night
Get on, get on with your life.
You know it's easy.
