

Helen Reddy, Love Song For Jeffrey

I CAN'T SAY GOODBYE TO YOU

-Helen Reddy-

you say it would be better if we stopped seeing each other if you had only met me first when you were free
'cause now you've got commitment i should not expect things from you that you can't give to me oh, but baby, can't you see
no matter how i tried
you're such a part of me
withour you, i would die
deep, in the heart of me i know that you and i
were meant to be be together i can't tell you goodbye neither of us planned that we would fall in love this way but since we did why should we be apart sometimes, some things happen that can never be explained now, it's too late for me i've already given you my heart
who knows why we choose when we choose the ones we love who knows why we do the things we do when we're in love i know that you're a decent man and you try to do what's best but how can i forget all the feelings we have shared
(you and i were meant to be, forever)
i can't tell you goodbye.....
