

Hell Within, A World To Murder

When will the hands of god
Choke the life from this world of fools
Eradicate the masses
Crushed under the weight of failure

Await the deathblow
ripped from your pried hands
A faith transparent
Liberate us!
Decimate us!

Our fear blinds
Us to the ones who enslave us
Our world dies
Corruption stands us idle

All our lives
Devoid of meaning
Endless searching
Silent screaming
For our rotting soulds
There is no hope

Lower my broken body down
An unmarked grave
Unwanted mourning
I'll keep my death all for myself
Save all your tears for drowning

Await the deathblow
ripped from your pried hands
A faith transparent
Liberate us!
Decimate us!

Our fear blinds
Us to the ones who enslave us

Our world dies
Corruption stands us idle

All our lives
Devoid of meaning
Endless searching
Silent screaming
For our rotting soulds
There is no hope

You
Force us down
Bind our wrists
Crush our dreams
Your hopeless God is dying

Let the fires rise
Warm our ears with burning temples
Spill your lungs to empty skies
With baited breath weep prayers unanswered

Fear the collective silence
Sever us from times division
I tread a million miles
Nothing stole the hate from my eyes

Conceived just to die

The blinding faith in your eyes

Your fear!

Your lies!

You feel that you'll die!

A stitch in time

No one to save you
