

Hella, Friends Don't Let Friends Win

Lay down stay down

I have no interest in the future of mankind
It holds no difference in my concept of lost time
If you're anti-climatic you can never be free
You're given life you give it what's left of your tragedy

Friends don't let friends win

Lay down stay down (lay down stay down we are gonna own our minds)

I lose because losing is the only way to be known
When I am nothing I will feel less afraid
And what will fill me
Won't be what my hands have made

Friends don't break friends

When they're broken open
In lives they have not chosen
In lives you have not chosen
Speak as you were spoken

Lay down stay down
Loud as the loner speaks
Rest in peace
