

Hellacopters, Hurtin' Time

You put the hurt on me babe
I put the hurt right back
That's a lot of hurt and we're heading
Down on a nowhere track

My eye for your eye
Your tooth for my tooth
Leaves the whole world blind without teeth
And baby that's the hurtin' truth

It's hurtin' time
Well you know it–
Hurtin' time

I apologise now
And wait for you to respond
Will you say you're sorry
Or will the hurtin' times keep going on

It's hurtin' time
Well you know it's
Hurtin' time

A blow for a blow
The biter bit
Face right down
In the hurtin' grit

Hurtin' time

You put the hurt on me babe
I put the hurt right back
That's a lot of hurt and we're heading
Down on a nowhere track

It– hurtin' time
Well you know it–
Hurtin' time
Hurtin' time
Hurtin' time
