Helloween, March Of Time

Hours of lost, hours of tears passing by before my eyes Today, tomorow, yesterday, one life

Days of joy, days of sadness come and go to pass me by A month, a year, one hundred years they fly

Ohh, one day I will be gone to lead another life Ohh, and this world will stop to turn oround with me

Time... maches
Time... maches
on without us all, never stop, yes
Time... maches
Time... maches
on and on and on, flies eternaly

Times of peace, times of fight constant moviment os our life can't stop no more not until... we die we lonf for more... eternity, and maybe there's another life this one is short, no matter how you try

Ohh, but never give up all the hope to lead a good life No. don't waste your given time to make things worse

Time... maches
Time... maches
on without us all, never stop, yes
Time... maches
Time... maches
on and on and on, flies eternaly

Please, please help me see the best way to be Make we change and we, live eternaly No more wasted years no more wasted tears Life's too short to cry long enough to cry

Time... maches
Time... maches
on without us all, never stop, yes
Time... maches
Time... maches
on and on and on, flies eternaly
