

Hellraiser, No Brain, No Pain

the life's so unreal
you learn to believe it
experience of dying
and you are gonna try it if you haveno brain
you can feelno pain
of suicidal dream you thrill how does it feel to kill yourself, you strepped on this way say, say if have to wait?

where're you now boy?
and there is no reason to wait for the good times your life's like a prison and nobody cares blow your mind away now you must be slain it will never be the same you gotta choose this way darkness surrounding you hey! try just to get away you'll never see the sky you'll never touch the ground you'll never feel the wind all you can see - the dark all you can touch - the grave all you can feel - the death

yourself, you stepped on this way say, say if have to it?
try just to get away

you'll never to the ground you'll never feel wind
