

Hellraiser, Rocket In The Air

Rockets in the air
No place to turn
There is no shelter
Missiles in the air
Death's riding
Straight inside you
Shells are in the air
You are the target
Bombs will strike it
Do you really care
Surviving or dying

Where will you run to
What will you do boy
There ain't no one to save you guy
Close your eyes tight
And say your prayers
There's no escape

Just wait, Just wait, Just wait

You don't need to run
If s catching you
No need to hide
Bombs are falling down
Missiles fly to smash you
What you gonna do
You see them flying in the air
Nothing left to do
You are falling to despair
