

Hellraiser, Snakes In The Kitchen

Rats in my bedroom
They're bouncing up high
Shaking their long bare tails
Snakes in my kitchen
They crawl on my floor
I'm scared to death
I'm going pale

Alligators in my bath
Swimming in and splashing blood
Opening their nasty jaws
I'm sitting on the wardrobe
Looking down and watch them go
And hear them roar

There goes a wild and scary tiger
He wants to cut my throat
There goes a huge and hungry lion
He wants to rip my heart

Wild life is flourishing
Right in my flat
Right in the middle of the town
All kind of animals live in my flat
I just can see them around

Rats in my bedroom
They're bouncing up high
Shaking their long bare tails
Snakes in my kitchen
They crawl on my floor
I'm scared to death
I'm going pale
