

Helltrain, My Little Stars

while you're sleepin' i watch you grow i'd love to keep you but i know i have to let you go when you're cryin' i dry your eyes i love your laughter the smile in your face when dawn arise when i close my eyes and rest my face when time has come to go and leave this place i'll be standing proud in front of who you are i love you all my little stars when you're smiling i feel hope i hope you feel it too and know i love you so meeting up again is wonderful you know
