

Helltrain, You're The Man

now listen up you gotta know what I talk about you've got a wife and kids that shout and you're working all day long right?
and you fuck it up spend your bucks on beers and stuff beat your lady and think it's tough i'll tell you what you fucking suck can you hear it comin'? yeah you're right it's a hurricane it's my right hand doin' a turn slappin your fat face sing it out so your head is alright?

you'd better keep on runnin' or i'll pick up a fight you'd better dance or i'll make you a sad man looking like king kong I am the badass sing it out so you're fucked up inside? you'd better start to listen or we'll call it a night take a stance damn be like a real man i'll do it again i'll pick out the badass you said what? oh it's tough to work and stuff? yeah that's right baby boy is like nine to five and rough try do it for half the buck

beat your lady and think it's tough
i'll tell you what you fucking suck
