Helmet, Swallowing Everything

Hanging out with all these dicks
Still collecting tokens
Knock 'em back, you're making noises
You live in the moment
Wonder you're not morning sick
Making conversation
This dull arithmetic, all these stock exchanges

Swallowing everything Sinker, hook and line Paralyzed, anesthetized Wasted one more time

Swabbing now in duplicate So mystique consultants They all figured unequipped, cannot be insulted

Swallowing everything Sinker, hook and line Paralyzed, anesthetized Wasted one more time
