

Hem, Idle (The Rabbit Song)

Broken moon in the sky
Enough to pull up our eyes
From the ground where we hide
From the ground where we hide

Gonna waste some time with you and let this world go
Keep my heart idle
Gonna waste my time with you and let this love go
A broken heart, idle

Restless stars through the trees
Enough to fall to our knees
Make no sound so no one sees
Make no sound so no one sees

Gonna waste some time with you and let this world go
Keep my heart idle
Gonna waste my time with you and let this love go
A restless heart, idle
