

Henry Rollins, Language

So!

Being a fan of the use of language

Being a fan of English, um

I got this amazing letter from a fella named Boris.

And I wanted to read this to you.

He's, he's from um, the Czech Republic.

And I wanted to read you this quick letter by the cat because he's just amazing. And he wrote one

This is 8/22/98 12:16 PM, Los Angeles, California

Boris checks in from the Czech Republic with this burning missive:

'Hello Henry,

I'm sorry for my English, but I understand English very little, thank you for your favour. My name is

OK. Check out this sentence.

'On two concert, I'm shootive collective photo but small, fat, bald headed technologist be insane. '

Let's milk it shall we?

'On two concert, I'm shootive collective photo, but such small, fat, bald headed techologist be insar

In translation, I think he took his roll of film to Rite Aid and had a bad Rite Aid experience. And you

I go on.

'I compilation all material for you and band. I would like to read of your some book, but don't publis

Sure.

'I you for very much autograph or publicity material or answer in my letter. Thanks a lot for it. I wis

The communique from Boris makes me think of how great a feature-length movie with this use of la