

Her Majesty, Most Unlikely (You're The One)

Take a look through my eyes
As you check the scene
Do the right thing and you know you will come clean
But we both know
That there are things you'll never be
We are not the same
And we'll always disagree

Most unlikely you're the one
Most unlikely you're the one

Since no time has passed
And we're still standing still
Find true meaning
And thou shall be fulfilled
If you try real hard
There's few things you can't be
But on this one, I will always disagree

Most unlikely you're the one
Most unlikely you're the one

But on this one, I will always disagree
