

Her Majesty, Time Standing Still

time is standing still here and there's nothing I can do about it there's nothing I can do about it not like you would ever try well, but anyway

there's something missing and you get this feeling too at times you don't have to prove me wrong as always you are always right not right here

hold me down pin me to the ground don't let me breathe no that's what I need no, it's not you it's me well, right whatever since I just can't see why won't you show me?

what makes us different now? what gives you the right please try to be the same again I'll try to stay the same right here

well, just try to be the same again to feel the same again what gives you the right to change?

and there's nothing you could do about it well, not like you would try but anyway

well, don't you get this feeling too at times and you don't have to prove me wrong I know you are always right you're always right but you're not here right now no, you're not here right now well are you riding the clouds?

you're not right here you're not here
you're not here right now
