

Her Words Kill, Make Me Beautiful

Stay tonight, don't leave me to sleep alone.
And wake me up, make me beautiful.

As you once thought I was, make me beautiful.
Sitting on the bed side you glanced, slightly to the right but in my path.
Make me beautiful with your eyes.
Sitting on a bed of roses and sifting through pictures we never had.

Make me beautiful with your eyes.
