

Herman's Hermits, God Knows

God Knows

Out of the pages of books that I read
I can recall that somewhere someone said
If you don't succeed
Try again

So I'm comin' to you with my heart in my hands
Usin' every ounce of strength I can
Don't turn me away
Listen what I've got to say

'cause I live and breathe you
God knows how much I need you
And I'll never leave you
God knows I love you

Too insecure as lovers we failed
The princess and the white knight lived in fairy tales or so that story goes

We read so right from the very start
Now here we are both with broken hearts
Let's not part this way

'cause I live and breathe you
God knows how much I need you
And I'll never leave you
God knows I love you

'cause time ran away
And took you by the hand
If I can't bring you back
Maybe, maybe time can

'cause I live and breathe you
God knows how much I need you
And I'll never leave you
God knows I love you

God knows I need you
God knows I want you
God knows I love you
