

Herman's Hermits, Something's Happening

Something is happening
And it started happening
When you walked by
Something is happening
And it's changing everything
Do you know why?

As soon as you started to kiss me
Something new suddenly hit me
Love walked over, it's always happening
The same sort of things to others too
Something is happening to me
And I only hope the same thing is happening to you

Something is happening
Exciting, bewildering
You must know why
Something is happening
I can't think of anything
But you and I

What begins these happy notions?
You do things to my emotions
I can tell whatever is happening
There's nothing about it I can do
Something is happening to me
And I only hope the same thing is happening to you

Soon as you started to kiss me
Something new suddenly hit me
Love walked over, it's always happening
The same sort of things to others too
Something is happening to me
And I only hope the same thing is happening to you

What begins these happy notions?
You do things to my emotions
I can tell whatever is happening
There's nothing about it I can do
Something is happening to me
And I only hope the same thing is happening to you
