Herman's Hermits, Something's Happening

Something is happening And it started happening When you walked by Something is happening And it's changing everything Do you know why?

As soon as you started to kiss me Something new suddenly hit me Love walked over, it's always happening The same sort of things to others too Something is happening to me And I only hope the same thing is happening to you

Something is happening Exciting, bewildering You must know why Something is happening I can't think of anything But you and I

What begins these happy notions?
You do things to my emotions
I can tell whatever is happening
There's nothing about it I can do
Something is happening to me
And I only hope the same thing is happening to you

Soon as you started to kiss me Something new suddenly hit me Love walked over, it's always happening The same sort of things to others too Something is happening to me And I only hope the same thing is happening to you

What begins these happy notions?
You do things to my emotions
I can tell whatever is happening
There's nothing about it I can do
Something is happening to me
And I only hope the same thing is happening to you
