

Hi Standard, Spread Your Sail

Sometimes life has brought me pleasure.
Sometimes pain.
Take with a grain of salt,'cause it's my destiny.
If I hesitate,I will hit rock and sink to the bottom.
Spread your sail.
Feel God's breath.
Take the helm and set your course.
And sometimes I am given gifts from paradise.
I don't know if I should feel thankful or afraid.
Please don't tell me anything.
I know you know everything.
So I am sailing on.
I think of you and watch the horizon.
Spread your sail.
Feel God's breath.
Take the helm and set your course.
