

Hidell, Reality

Walking through
Through the shadows of my past
Waiting for you to come back
Time is all i need
Why won't you come back to me
Cause your somewhere out there (somewhere out there)
With no reality

How will i get by
With the rest of my life

well I
I need to find
The part of me
Inside of me
I left behind

Life just give it to me
I know it was meant to be
Cause your somewhere out there (somewhere out there)
With no reality
