

Hiding With Girls, Auryn

"I should've known you'd arise
Should've known that you'd be my dreams
I should've seen this coming
Should've known that you'd never give up irony"

"I feel like I'm always waiting to avenge her life"

"I hope you can stomach me
Cos it's harder when the one you want lies sleeping in the way"

"We never lit up the world
Never lived up to anything
I should've known how you'd be
Should've rendered the moment we met differently"

"I feel like I'm always waiting to avenge her life"

"I hope you can stomach me
Cos it's harder when the one you want lies sleeping in the way"

And though you know its time to let this become gold
You won't resign to this eternity

"I hope you can stomach me
Cos its harder when the one you want lies sleeping in the way"
