

Hiding With Girls, It's A Girl Thing

It's about time that you gave chase on the sun for me
Between the sheets I'm on my seventh alibi
By the time you read this I'll have company
And I will walk into the trap

And I believe in ways to be so... right you are

You conspired in me, so I'll see it through
To sit here and watch the downpour...
Baby you know I'll sit here and watch your downfall

It's about time that you read me from between the lines
Cause I can't say if the glass will break beneath me
Right before you light the fuse I let you all decide
And then I walk into the trap

And I believe in assuming... and there you are

You conspired in me, so I'll see it through
To sit here and watch the downpour...
Baby you know I'll sit here and watch your downfall
