

Highwater Rising, Full Moon Drive

Baby Im so tired tonight but I cant sleep with myself baby I hear your words and you fear the worst for us now would you say youre wrong Ive been waiting long through the dark and stormy night I drive bound by fences
and the city was closing in on me through the races
I made my choice out of love not fear baby I dont want to fight I feel bad enough tonight baby you fear the worst I hear your words would you say youre wrong Ive been waiting long through the dark and stormy night I drive
bound by fences
races
I made my choice out of love not fear
I see the full moon rising I think Ill keep on driving till I reach some place
