

Highwater Rising, In My Head

She says
that its in my head I cant let go of all the memories but I know
I cant live in the past anymore
she says
she is all alone
and that even when Im in the house it never feels like Im at home every time we spend together I'm tired and Im scared and Im upset but I still wanna try because I want everything
to be the way
it used to be when we could tell eachother that we loved eachother she is everything to me and I cant see how Im gonna leave
I feel like
I am all alone and I dont know if there is anyway she and I can make it on our own I wanna tell her how much I love her and how beautiful she is to me that I still wanna try
