

Hilary Duff, What I Feel About You

In these eyes, Were the words more than Anything that I've spoken
As the skies, Turn to grey my heart's
Just about to crack open

So the story goes
There's something you should know
Before I walk away and I blow the ending

[chorus]
I never want to be without you
Oh I go here you go now I know
What I feel about you
There's no runnin'
I must of been wrong about you
Oh no there I go no control
And I'm fallin' so now you know

Feel so light, Craving not searchin'
All this truth's left me empty
When you run, Can you handle it
'Cause I need you to tell me

Maybe this is bold

But I'm hoping you will stay for the happy ending

[chorus]
I never want to be without you
Oh I go here you go now I know
What I feel about you
There's no runnin'
I must of been wrong about you
Oh no there I go no control
And I'm fallin' so now you know

No I won't look back when I tell you what I think about you (2x)

So the story goes, Yeah, you already know
So don't be a fool and go spoil the ending

[chorus] 2x
I never want to be without you
Oh I go here you go now I know
What I feel about you
There's no runnin'
I must of been wrong about you
Oh no there I go no control
And I'm fallin' so now you know
